ROUTE INFO

---

This walk starts at reception and heads out the end of the lodge entrance road.

Pass through the wooden entrance gates and turn immediately right back across the road leaving Black Hall on your right-hand side.

Continue along the road, overlooking Black Hall Farm on the right, and with the woodland on your left. During May, this woodland is full of bluebells.

You will reach a white cottage on your right-hand side, followed by two other properties (Cwm Cole).

Continue as the road starts to incline.

You will pass some farm buildings on your right, before heading down a steep hill through a woodland.

When you reach the bottom of the hill, turn immediately left following the road under the woodland.

Continue ahead until you pass some more farm buildings on your right hand side. Just ahead you will reach a junction.

At the junction, turn left signposted Llanfair Waterdine.

Continue on this road passing several properties and St.Mary's church on your left hand side. It is usually open to the public if you wish to visit inside.

You will also pass the Everest Hall on your right hand side which was once a village school.

Just ahead, the Community Pavilion is on the right hand side which provides a public toilet and water facilities. The field is open to the public.

As you reach the junction ahead, turn left following the tourist sign back to Black Hall Lodges.
